

32ND ANNUAL

KING HALL
LEGAL FOUNDATION

SPRING AUCTION

FEBRUARY 19, 2010

FREEBORN HALL

AUCTION PROGRAM

ALL PROCEEDS BENEFIT STUDENTS PURSUING PUBLIC INTEREST LEGAL OPPORTUNITIES

Welcome to the Thirty-Second Annual King Hall Legal Foundation Spring Auction

The life of a law student is dominated by classes, journals, and an omnipresent bar exam. However, many students, through their tenacity and work ethic, manage to balance the concerns of school with those of the community. Through work outside of the classroom, hundreds of UC Davis law students every year advocate on behalf of those for whom legal assistance is most needed.

At a law school whose namesake called those with great privilege to serve others, the King Hall Legal Foundation (KHLF) was founded more than 30 years ago by law students in order to support classmates who were pursuing legal work in the public interest. KHLF continues in this mission today, and the Auction celebrates the accomplishments of the King Hall public interest community.

Throughout the years, students, faculty, and staff at UC Davis Law have been the Foundation's most enthusiastic supporters. This Auction would also be impossible without the tireless assistance and ability of KHLF members. Faculty, staff, alumni, friends of the law school and supporters of our cause have also contributed to the success of the Auction and KHLF throughout this year. To all of these individuals, we give our deepest gratitude.

Thank you for coming to celebrate with us this evening. We truly appreciate your continued support, both financially and otherwise. Enjoy the Auction!

Scott Vignos and Theo Cuison
Co-Chairs, KHLF Board of Directors

Supporting the Public Interest Community at King Hall since 1978

Founded in 1978, the King Hall Legal Foundation is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization dedicated to encouraging, enabling and empowering UC Davis law students to pursue legal opportunities in the public interest.

Through its Summer Public Interest Grants program, KHLF funds projects at legal aid agencies and organizations proposed by King Hall first and second year students. The Bar Fellowship program supports graduating students pursuing careers in the public interest as they prepare for the Bar Examination.

In 2009, KHLF awarded 12 Summer Public Interest Grants and 2 Bar Fellowships, distributing over $55,000 in grant monies. Summer Public Interest Grants funded over 4,800 hours of public service work. Organizations that host KHLF grant recipients are located throughout California, the United States and the world. Grant recipients have pursued projects at organizations that include Sacramento Child Advocates, California Rural Legal Assistance, the East Bay Community Law Center, the Georgia Capital Defenders and the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda, among others.

KHLF raises funds throughout the year to support its programs. Fundraising events include the Stephen Boutin Golf Tournament, Dr. Ives Charity Alumni Basketball Tournament, and the Spring Auction. Generous donations from students, faculty, staff, alumni and friends of KHLF contribute significantly to the Foundation's ability to support important public interest work. KHLF also receives funding from foundations in Northern California, including the California Endowment.

Most importantly, KHLF is entirely managed and operated by student volunteers. The many students, faculty, staff and community members who donate their effort and time to the organization are vital to the success of KHLF.

2010 KHLF Alumni Award Recipient

Professor Amagda Pérez, Class of 1991

Professor Amagda Pérez attended UC Davis for her undergraduate education, majoring in Spanish and Chicano Studies. She graduated from King Hall in 1991 and currently serves as the Director of the UC Davis School of Law Immigration Law Clinic and Executive Director of the California Rural Legal Assistance Foundation.

At the Immigration Law Clinic, she brings a wealth of experience and expertise in immigration and poverty law where she supervises second- and third-year law students in the preparation of deportation defense cases. King Hall students have described her as an incredible mentor whose passion for helping clients is contagious.

Beyond being a mentor to current King Hall students, Professor Pérez has extensive experience working with immigrants of varied nationalities and other disenfranchised communities. Professor Pérez has dedicated her career to supporting students at King Hall and to addressing the critical needs of immigrant populations in the United States. We are proud to honor her with the 2010 KHLF Alumni Award.

Other nominees for the 2010 KHLF Alumni Award included: Prof. Holly Cooper (Class of 1998), Meredith Linsky (Class of 1998), Clara Levers (Class of 2003), and Allen Hopper (Class of 1992)

2010 KHLF Faculty Award Recipient

Professor Clayton Tanaka

The enthusiastic support of Professor Tanaka has contributed greatly to the success of KHLF this year. Professor Tanaka provided invaluable guidance and enthusiasm as KHLF planned the First Annual Stephen Boutin Golf Tournament in October 2009. Countless hours were spent working with KHLF members to obtain sponsors, invite alumni, faculty, and students, and learning the finer points of golf.

Professor Tanaka also supported the 32nd Annual Dr. Ives Charity Alumni Basketball Tournament by sponsoring two law student teams and participating in the Faculty Knockout Tournament. He has generously donated multiple items for tonight's Auction. The King Hall Legal Foundation is proud to recognize Professor Tanaka's unwavering support for our mission by awarding him the 2010 KHLF Faculty Award.

Auction Rules

Section 1. General Policies

1. A diagram of the Auction layout can be found in the front lobby.
2. Bidders are responsible for all bids made with their assigned bidder number.
3. Payment for all non-faculty/staff guests is due at the end of the evening. KHLF prefers payment by check or cash, but also accepts Visa and MasterCard. King Hall faculty and staff may remit payment once the item is delivered to them at King Hall or check out in the manner provided for non-faculty/staff guests.
4. Goods are subject to 8.75 percent sales tax, which is not included in the bid price.
5. Amounts paid in excess of fair market value are considered tax-deductible donations.
6. It is the purchaser's responsibility to contact the donors to arrange for provision of services. All services are to be scheduled at the mutual convenience of purchaser and donor, unless otherwise specified.
7. All sales are final and "as-is." KHLF makes no warranties or representations with respect to any item or service.
8. KHLF is not responsible for lost or stolen items or gift certificates.

Section 2. Silent Auction Rules

1. Silent Auction items are arranged on tables throughout Freeborn Hall.
2. Locate item(s) in the program and proceed to the corresponding table(s). Each item will have a bid sheet with the item's description. Please observe the minimum bid and the bid increment listed on the bid sheet. Bids below the minimum or less than the bid increment above the previous bid will not be recognized.
3. To make a bid, provide your bidder number (on the back of your program), your name, and signature.
4. The Silent Auction will close at 8:45 p.m., or 9 p.m., depending on section.
5. Items will be available for pickup once checkout begins.

Section 3. Live Auction Rules

1. Beginning at 9:00 p.m., gather around the Live Auction area and join in on the bidding!
2. To place a bid, raise your bidder number (on the back of your program) and hold it high in the air.
3. All bids will start at the minimum price and be raised in increments stated by the Auctioneer.
4. The Auctioneer will announce when an item has been sold.
5. Items may be picked up once checkout opens at 9:15 p.m. for early close items, 9:30 p.m. for regular close items.

Section 4. Checkout Procedures

1. At the conclusion of the Live Auction, checkout will begin in the front lobby. KHLF volunteers will have lists of the winning bidders. Please consult these lists to avoid unnecessary waiting if you are not a winner.
2. Once you have paid for your purchases and have received a receipt, please bring your receipt to the Item Retrieval Station where a KHLF volunteer will retrieve your items.
3. King Hall faculty only may depart the Auction without collecting items or submitting payment. The items will be delivered to the faculty member at King Hall, at which time payment should be remitted.

Section 5. Tax Information

This catalog lists the fair market value of each item. Any amount you pay in excess of the fair market value would normally be available to you as a charitable contribution for tax purposes. Please check with your tax advisor for specifics.
