UC Davis School of Law welcomes author, attorney, and civil rights leader Dr. Clarence B. Jones, who served as counsel and speechwriter for Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and helped compose the historic “I Have a Dream” speech. Dr. Jones will deliver the keynote presentation at this celebration of Dr. King’s legacy and the 50th anniversary of the historic March on Washington.

Additional remarks by Professor of Law Emeritus and former California Supreme Court Justice Cruz Reynoso and UC Davis School of Law Dean Kevin R. Johnson.

The UC Davis School of Law building, King Hall, is named for Dr. King and his pursuit of civil rights, equality, and education.
